

Mariona Illamola Dausà

mariona.illamola@udg.edu

Orcid Code: 0000-0002-9571-0907

Degree in Law from the University of Navarra (1990), Licence Spécial en Droit International te Europee by the Université Catholique de Louvain la Neuve (Belgium 1991), and unanimous cum laude PhD in Law by the University of Girona (2001). Professor of International Public Law with the specialty of EU Law at the University of Girona since 1992. Accredited by the AQU and the ANECA. Director of the European Documentation Center of the UdG since 1996. Director of the Centro de Documentación Europea of the UdG since January 2013.

She teaches in the degrees of Law, Political Science and Administration and in the Master in Law of the UdG. She is also a frequent lecturer in the Interuniversity Master's Degree in Contemporary Migration (UB – UAB), as well as in the summer course on politics and the right of asylum and immigration of the EU that organizes the network of experts Odysseus to the Free University of Brussels.

The main lines of research in which she has focused its publications are the EU's immigration policy, the integration of third-country nationals and the management of EU borders.

She, is currently a member of the Consolidated Research Group recognized by AGAUR on the area of freedom, security and justice of the EU and participates in the projects financed by the Ministry of Economy and Competitiveness Evaluación del Proceso normativo en la Unión Europea y en España ante los nuevos retos sociales del Estado de Derecho (DER2016-76325-R), and La cooperación internacional como medio imprescindible para combatir el tráfico y la trata de personas: el papel de la Unión Europea y Otros organismos internacionales (CIMCETT) (DER2016-78990-P). She is also part of the UdG research group on Gestión de la inmigración, libre circulación de personas y derechos de los trabajadores.

Personal page: <http://www.udg.edu/personal/mariona.illamola.dausa>